

There is so much to see and do here on Royal Deeside. There are many National Trust properties, beautiful gardens and places of interest to visit, and for refreshments there are any number of excellent tea rooms, friendly pubs, hotels and restaurants.

If you intend to be energetic there are local facilities for golf (including a driving range), gliding, canoeing, mountain biking, riding and walking. There are indoor swimming and sports facilities at Aboyne and Banchory. The more traditional field sports—game shooting, stalking and fishing—can also be enjoyed and some of these may be available on request at Ballogie.

Why not try the Castle, Coastal or Whisky trail? The Tourist Information Centre in Banchory will be delighted to help you. In August and September you can attend one of our world-famous Highland Games, or simply enjoy the beauty, peace and tranquillity of the unspoilt countryside.

FORD COTTAGE

Brief Overview

Ford Cottage sleeps 5. It is a delightful single-storey cottage set on the banks of the magnificent River Dee - nestling off the beaten track beside an historic ford. This cosy cottage, in a splendid and tranquil setting, is ideal for fishermen and country lovers.

In olden times the river was forded here to allow access to one of the oldest villages on Deeside. Kincardine O'Neil can still be seen just across the water.

Comfortably furnished, the interior has been tastefully decorated, it has a wood-burning stove, is centrally heated and equipped to a high standard of modern comfort.

Aboyne - 8 miles, Banchory - 10 miles
Aberdeen - 28 miles

Accommodation

There is a comfortable sitting room with a wood-burning stove which also runs the central heating. Television, Freeview digital and telephone. The kitchen with integral dining area is fitted with all the necessary equipment for self-catering including a cooker; microwave, fridge/freezer, dishwasher and a full set of china.

There are laundry facilities, including washing machine/tumble dryer, iron and board.

The bathroom has an electric shower over the bath and there are three bedrooms; one double, one twin and one single.
